The said Complaints were sent to you for enquiry on the 21st August. Even after 2 months' delay you do not seem to have gone into the Case fully and completely nor is your report thereon very plain, and this negligence of yours renders it difficult to pass final orders on the subject. Again therefore are enclosed the two Complaints nos. 69 and 70, and a list shewing matters that have not at all been enquired into, and those that have been partially enquired into by you. You are hereby required to examine minutely the contents of the list Column by Column and report thereon as early as possible. If it appears from the report to be made in accordance with this order that you have been again careless in respect of the investigation you will positively be fined. The original Complaints to be returned.
