SIR,

In returning your Memo of the 3rd Ultimo regarding Syulu Chetty's pension Case, I have the honor to state that the delay in sending his application was caused by a search having had to be made into the old records for the preparation & verification of his service list in communication with the Sub Collector, who originally submitted the application.

2. Syulu Chetty remained in service up to 20th March only, and the entry in the register, of the next following date was a clerical error.

I have the honor to be,
