*Adjoining for a gratuity on account of Mr P. C. Chidambaram
Director of Public Instruction
Take return at Calcutta*

The undersigned has the honor to forward, along with these papers, copy of a letter from the late J. D. to the late visitor No 1392 of the 31st July 1861, by which it appears that Mr. Shrivens did not act as a pupil of Mr. J. D. before the 15th or 16th March 1861, before that time Mr. Shrivens was a Normal pupil and done a scholarship. Possibly, in the course of the account department, a sufficiently clear line of distinction was not shown in 1860-61 between a Normal scholarship and a teacher's salary. There is still a little confusion as to the exact day on which Mr. Shrivens's service should be reckoned to have begun. The above Mr. J. D.'s letter implies that Mr. Shrivens's service began on the 15th March, but the entry in the register, which is given by the H. M. of Juddah school, is probably correct. W. D. D.
