 - Ratham Singh - do hereby make oath & say that I first entered the service in the days of Collector Gleig (?) & shortly after the great famine in the General Service Police - as a seon on a salary of 5 Rs per mensem do not remember how long I held this post - but I think less than 8 years I was afterwards transferred to Asst's post in the Cash Department - where I remained 9 years or so - after which the General Treasury being abolished I was made a Taluk Seon of Bejwada - after being one month ^{without employ} ~~unemployed~~ I was 008 a year - Seon in Bejwada - after which I was a Seon in Budralla for 4 th or 5 th a month for 20 years - during all time for 3 mos I was at Rona - My duties were to look after the Salt &c. - I have saved Sal altogether about 37 years & was reduced about a year ago, since at I have done nothing except wait for Pension - Collector Wroughton (Cotton?) gave me my post of Golla in Cash Department - Mr. Porter was Ctr. when Salt was abolished, & he gave me my peon's post in Bejwada."

Declaration of Mahomed Audam son of Mahomed Ali taken at Guntur on the 19th day of October 1871 -

When I first was employed in the Public Service I was a Revenue peon in the Tenali taluq and received four rupees a month - I do not recollect in what year I was employed, but it was when Mr Mathison acted as Collector at Guntur - I served there five years and then came to Guntur as a taluq police peon on five rupees a month. I do not recollect the dates - I served seven years in Guntur, and was then sent to Markur where I served in the Police for eight years. I then enlisted in the New Police. When I served at Tenali Mantri Venkatachellam, Tayar Khan & Chentso Ramayya were Tahsildars of that taluq.

this 19th day of October 1871—

I am a pensioner receiving three and a half rupees a month and reside at Guntur— I know the claimant Mohomed Studam—A long time ago when I was a peon under the Sessions Court I used to see him as he brought prisoners from Tenali— Afterwards he was employed in the police at Guntur—I don't know any particulars about his being employed at Tenali—

He says he was a Revenue peon at Tenali— Then how could he bring prisoners to the Sessions Court?
In those days Revenue peons did that work—

He was afterwards employed in Martur—

Memorandum
Masulipatam

Sir,
I regret that much delay has taken place in the submission of application for Mahammed Adam. Item 182 in the accompanying Register of application for fraternity.

2 He was discharged from the Prisoner house on 15th February 1864, "being surplus of strength."

3 He put in his application for fraternity 5th April of that year.

4 The Sahaidar of frontier who was directed to investigate in his case submitted the papers relative thereto 25th May following.

5 These papers, appear to have been lost in the Cyclone of 1st November 1864, and I have no idea of what transpired from 25th May 1864 until the man put in his appearance at Board 30 January 1870 on 15th November 1870.

6 In order to discover whether his application was prior to 31st March 1868, records from the Sahaidar were called for on 5th December 1870.

These

at Board
30 January
