In the year 1868 / J.P. 10 November / 68 a reduction was made in the number of men in District Jail, and since then, from time to time, keeping the wishes of the Government in view made further reduction, and the reduction of 2 convicts at Calcutta Jail in March last was ordered accordingly.
These reductions are more probable in the future. I have no means of knowing for either of the two men in question.
