To The Judge of the Court of Small Causes
at New York

Most Honored Sirs

The humble obediency of

Elizabetha the Moody Record
Keeper of the said Court.

I was entertained in the late Gilliat Court, Chillicothe in 1833 and has held various appointments, but owing to the abolition of that Court in September 1843, I was out of employ for some time and also obtained gradually for my present employment. Again in 1846 I was appointed groomstable in the late Sub Court of Chillicothe and then got promotions up to the present post. My service from 1846 is continuous as per statement given below. During the whole period of my service I received no remuneration from my superiors in discharging the duties of the various situations I have held to the satisfaction of my employers as will be seen from the General Register of Servants kept in this Court.

The recommendation made by this Court for my continuance in the public service having been refused by the High Court on the ground of my having passed 64 years in age I respectfully beg leave to submit that your honor will be pleased to recommend me to Government and obtain for me a pension at Rs 12 per mensem being one half of my salary & that I may be directed to continue in the service until the pension is granted by Government.

Remain with due respect

Most Honored Sir

Yours most obedient Thumble Serv.

C. Cytherea & the new
