Sir

I have the honour to submit a Register of application for gratuity for this person. He is a person in Kullaturochy Taluk who was removed from the service on the 5th June 1871 for old age and infirmity and to request that you will in consideration of his long good service obtain for him a gratuity of Rs 36.

2. The Certificate granted by the Civil Surgeon of Cuddalore is enclosed.

3. There has been a delay of 6 months in the submission of the application. The Talukdar of Kullaturochy was directed on the 30th day to submit at once a detailed list of the services of this person; on the 23rd June he sent a most incomplete record.

reports, only showing the period service from 1862 and omitting to state the leave he had taken during that period.

A second order was at once sent to the Tahsildor directing him to put himself in communication with the Treasury Deputy Collector at the Tredeahelum Tahsildor and to ascertain from the person himself where he had served before 1862.

On the 11th October, 3 months and 11 days from the date of the order, the Tahsildor without having addressed the Treasury Deputy Collector as he was ordered to do, reported that the person could not be found and the Tahsildor of Tredeahelum had drawn an assurance to his letter.

On the 21st October the Tahsildor of Tredeahelum was directly addressed from this office a reply was received from the former on the 27th Idem and from the latter on the 14th November. Another reference had to be made to the Tahsildor of Kullatcarahy for a copy of an order of suspension. This was received from that officer on on the 11th December.

You will observe that Mr. Sharp called for the requisite information six days before he retired, had the Tahsildor of Kullatcarahy obeyed orders, there would have been no delay. I fear that disobedience is not an unusual fault with this officer; I sent copies of my orders about his neglect of regard to Collections and durkasts. If the Tahsildor will neither obey orders, Collect or dispose of durkasts, something will have to be done to arouse him to a sense of duty. Meanwhile I beg to throw out the suggestion that he should at least pay this 36 Rs. for his neglect in this case.

I have the honor to be

Talukdar sent to you on the 25th inst. No 358

The said person has subsequently appeared in person, but from his deposition, there does not appear sufficient reason for his having been out 12 days. He is therefore suspended for a month as recommended for his indifference by the Tahildar of Treicholone in his Boji marginally noted, you will look upon the suspension term as commencing from the 25th instant and appoint another man in his stead for the time in accordance with the former Tatid.
