ORDER OF GOVERNMENT.

Deposition given by Gatti Challayya before the Collector and Magistrate of Vizagapatam District on 3rd August 1871.

I was appointed a peon on a salary of Rs 3 a month on the Establishment of the Karasa salt-Pans in 1833 by the then Collector Mr Brason. My pay was increased to Rs 4 in 1841. I was a peon on the Establishment of the Salt-Karasa salt pans, from the time I was entertained in the service until the organization of the Police Force. Meantime when the Karasa Salt-pans were closed for a few days. I was added to the Establishment of peons under the Head of Police of Vizagapatam, but I was again appointed Peon of Karasa Salt-Pans when they were reopened.

In 1861, I was made a Police Constable from the post of Peon attached to the Salt-Pans, and as I had performed my duties satisfactorily I was promoted to the post of a Constable in 1863. I have got a continuous service of 38 years, and have never been suspended or discharged. My services as Deputy Constable were dispensed with on the 31st July 1871, by the Superintendent of Police on the ground of my being superannuated.

I shall prove the above facts by the undermentioned witnesses.

Deposition given by Kilari Chinnayya Huzur Deloyet before the Collector and Magistrate of Vizagapatam District on 3rd August 1871.

I do not know in which year Gatti Chellaya entered the Government service, but am well aware of his having been a peon on the Establishment of the Karava Salt Pans from 1842 to 1861 and of his having been entertained in the Police in the said 1861.

I and some others peons were deputed from the Huzur to examine the earth salt, and in these occasions, I take the said Challayya with me. I therefore distinctly know that he was a Peon of the Karava Salt Pans.

Deposition given by Pigili Pydayya before the Collector and Magistrate of Vizagapatam on August 1871.

I know well that Gatti Chellayya was appointed as a Peon on the Establishment of the Karaiva Salt Pans upwards of 30 years (the year I do not recollect) ago during the Collectorship of Mr. Mason in this District. As I have been a Peon of the Karaiva Salt Pans since before the appointment of the said Chellayya, I am aware of his appointment. I and Chellayya served at Karaiva for 15 years since he was made a Peon of the Karaiva Salt Pans. I was then appointed a Peon under the Tahsildar of Sarvasiddhi Taluq, and I do not know well of the service performed by Chellayya since.
