Sir,

I have the honor to retransmit the Register of application for Pension from Gumasta Parwaya and to furnish the information called for in your office Memo. of the 22nd Ultimo therewith received.

Para 6 of the Memo: From the Diary of the late Zillah Court of 1836 it appears that in December of that year the Pundit Sadr Amin was allowed Government Establishment; the applicant states he had been previously serving in private capacity and was then continued on the Government Establishment, but unfortunately there is no record extant showing the names of the Gumastas then appointed, the Diary stating that "Gumastah mentioned in the list sent" had been appointed and neither that list nor any order alluding to the name of the applicant is found. It however appears from the Pay acquittance roll of the fact that the applicant was Head Gunasta in the said Sudder Amine Court.

Para 21. There are no certificates produced by applicant of his character and the affidavit signed before me in support of his services is herewith forwarded as well as the statement of Krishna Chariya who seems to have been employed with the applicant in the Pundit Sudder Amine Court up to 1841 and subsequently in the Muzfti and Munsifs Court at Mangalore.

Para 22. The application for Pension was presented with the resignation but as it was informal and inaccurate and it was necessary to refer to several old records and as the adjournments of Courts were followed before it could be amended, the application could not be forwarded before the 17th July 1871.

Para 27. It appears from the applicants statement that although 12 Rs. were drawn in the Andent as his pay as Head Gunasta in the Pundit Sudder Amine Court yet according to a special order of the late Zillah Court only Rs 11 1/2 were being paid to him, the remaining half a rupee being <sup>paid</sup> to Massalji of the Zillah Court for his services in the Pundit Sudder Amine Court which had no Massalji allowed in its establishment. Unfortunately however the order sanctioning this arrangement is not forthcoming but it appears from the above mentioned acquittance roll that this was a fact, because the actual payment to applicant is there entered as 11 1/2 Rs. and the remaining half a rupee to the Massalji. It seems that there were many such cases in Courts here before the promulgation of the Sudder Courts order prohibiting division of salaries. The fact that he appears to have drawn Rs 12 till 1855 must be a mistake, for it still appears that he received 11 Rs. only as Head Gunasta in the Pechal Munsifs Court and the pay of the Munsifs Court Head Gunastas was not more than 11 Rs. at that time.
