ORDER THEREON, 13th May 1872, No. 384.

Valur Kunhi Ramen Menon, late 2nd Goomastah on the establishment of the Principal Sadr Amin's Court at Tellicherry, served in superior grades for thirty years, seven months, and seven days, but there is a break in his service owing to his dismissal on the 10th November 1851, which entails forfeiture of his past service, amounting to twelve years and five months, and a reduction of his pension from half to one-third salary.

2. There appears, however, to be some ground for a relaxation of the strict rules in the present case. The applicant was dismissed by the Session Judge owing to a suspicion of his having been implicated in a case of fraud, though the evidence adduced did not amount to full and legal proof of his guilt. The order was in the first instance confirmed by the High Court, but subsequently, on reconsideration, permission was accorded to his being again entertained in the Public Service.

3. Under these circumstances, the Honourable the Governor in Council resolves to overlook the break, and to grant to Valur Kunhi Ramen Menon a retiring pension of Rupees 8-12-0, equal to half his salary, subject to the confirmation of the Government of India, pending which a superannuation pension of Rupees 5-13-4, to which the applicant is entitled under the rules for his service of eighteen years, two months, and nine days, will be passed to him, with effect from 11th August 1871.

Sir,

I have the honor to submit for the favorable consideration of Government an application of Valia Kunhi Raman Menon, the late Second Gomasta of this Court, for a good service Pension which calculated according to the revised Pension Rules, dated 3rd May 1864, will amount to Rupees 5-13-4 monthly as shown in the accompanying Register.

2. The applicant retired under the order of the Government of India under date the 15th June 1871.

3. He served in pensionable grades for a period of 31 years and 20 days but this service has not been continuous as there was a break from 10th November 1851 to 1st April 1853. The circumstances which led to this break in his service will be found recorded in the papers herewith submitted. Independently of this unfortunate circumstance the applicant's conduct appears to have been highly satisfactory. Both before and after this event he served the Government without any stigma attaching to his character or conduct. During the 5 years he has been under me he has given me the greatest satisfaction in the discharge of his duties. It would be observed from the accompanying papers that the circumstances which led to his temporary dismissal from public service amounted to a mere suspicion and that there was no proof of his implication in the fraud laid to his charge. His subsequent conduct has tended to show that the above suspicion was not well founded. Under these circumstances I respectfully beg that his petition to over look the break and allow him a good service pension which will be equal to half of his average salary of past 5 years may receive favorable consideration at the hands of his Excellency the Governor in Council.

4. As the applicant's service was dispensed with from 11th August last, his pension may commence from that date.

5. He requests its payment thro' the Collector of Malabar.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Session Court of Tellicherry under date the 4th December 1851.

Read Reports submitted by the Principal Sadr Amin of Tellicherry with reference to Criminal Case No 75 of the current year 1851 on the file of his Court, in which Valoor Coonjy Raman the Head Gomastah of the Principal Sadr Amin's Court, and six others, were charged with Fraud.

Read also Petitions presented respectively by the Prosecutor, and by the 1st, 2d, 3 and 4th Prisoners, appealing against the decision of the Principal Sadr Amin in the case in question.

1 The Session Judge having gone through the entire record of the above case observes that the value of the Jenmum rights of which it is stated that the Prisoners endeavoured to defraud the Prosecutor being apparently not less than 500 or 600 Rupees was such as to take the case out of the jurisdiction of the Subordinate Court, had the Principal Sadr Amin been of opinion that the evidence was sufficient for the committal of the case, and with reference to the degree of the proof adduced the Session Judge is disposed to think that the Principal Sadr Amin would have been fully justified in adopting this course.

2 At the same time on a deliberate and careful consideration of the record it appears to the Session Judge to be very doubtful whether the legal evidence is such as would be sufficient for the conviction of the Prisoners of the charge of fraud under Mohammedan Law; and the Session Judge therefore will not now interfere with the manner in which the case has been disposed of by the Criminal Court with regard to the penal award against the 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th Prisoners.

3. As respects however the continuance in office of those of the Prisoners who are in the public service, the Session Judge is of opinion that the decision of the Principal Sadr Amin is much too lenient, and requires modification.

4 Independent of the strong suspicion that the parties have been guilty of an offence which if legally proved would have rendered them liable to heavy fine and imprisonment under the sentence of Criminal Court, the misconduct of the 1st Prisoner in particular has clearly been such as to render him wholly unfit for future employment. It is clearly shewn that a fictitious sale of the Jenmee right to the property was made by the 2d Prisoner to the 3d and by the latter again to the 1st Prisoner himself, apparently at the instigation of the latter and there is every reason to believe that the 1st Prisoner was at the time fully aware of the actual Jenmee rights of the Prosecutor whose claim would have been vitiated if these sales had been held good and valid. In making so valuable a purchase of landed property without permission of the Court to which he is attached, he has also been been guilty of a direct violation of the Circular Order of the Court of Sudder Adalut N° 116 which was received and entered in the Diary of the Court of which he was Head Gomastah prior to the date of the purchase. His plea that he was not aware at the time of the existence of this order is obviously futile and undeserving of credit.

5 The 4th Prisoner a Vakil of the Court of the District Munsiff of Tellicherry appears from his own statement to be intimate with the 1st Prisoner and from this circumstance and from the fact that both of the apparently fictitious Documents are in his handwriting, no reasonable doubt can be entertained that he was implicated in this most discreditable transaction. The same may be affirmed of the 5th Prisoner a Court Peon who prevaricated grossly when examined before the Police and the Criminal Court respecting the Documents which bear his signature as an attesting Witness.-

6. The Session Judge accordingly considers it necessary to direct the Principal Sadder Amin to remove the 1st and 5th Prisoners respectively from the Situations from which they have been suspended. Similar instructions will be furnished to the District Munsiff of Tellicherry with regard to the 4th Prisoner, and the 6th Prisoner an Ameen will not again be employed in that or in any other capacity by this or the Subordinate Courts.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Sudder Udalut.
Under date the 28th February 1853.

Read Miscellaneous Petition presented on the 10th May 1852, by Coonhy Ramen Menon of Zillah Tellicherry.

Read also Sudder and Foujdaree Miscellaneous Petition presented on the 29th Septr. 1852, by A. M. Ritchie Esquire, Vakeel on behalf of Coonhy Ramen Menon of Zillah Tellicherry.

1 The Petitioner prays for a reconsideration of this Court's Order dated the 5th July 1852, which affirmed the order of the Civil Judge dated 4th December 1851 adjudging the Petitioner's dismissal from Office.

2 Upon a careful reconsideration of the Petitioner's case, and of all that has been orally urged by his Pleader on his behalf, the Court are induced to consider that some relaxation of the severity of the Order passed on the 5th July 1852 may without injury to the cause of justice, or the public service, be granted in Petitioner's favor.

3 The Lower Courts were of opinion and this Court concurred therein, that although strong suspicion attached to the Petitioner the evidence adduced did not amount to full and legal

legal proof of his guilt. Moreover it would appear that the Petitioner has served the Government the last 20 years without any stigma attaching to his character or conduct until the occasion in question.

4. Giving the Petitioner the benefit of the above circumstances, the Court are of opinion that his absolute and permanent dismissal from the public service need not be insisted upon, that the punishment he has already undergone from having been more than a year out of employ with reduction to an inferior situation will suffice, and in the hope that he will take warning from the past and strive by a faithful discharge of his duties in future to merit this indulgence now shewn to him, they resolve to issue Orders to the Civil and Session Judge to place the petitioner in some situation in the Principal Sadr Amin's Court, but inferior to that which he before held.

Ordered that Extract of these proceedings be sent to the Civil Judge of Tellicherry for his information.

To

Governor in Council,
Fort St George,
Madras.

Petition of V. Kunhi Raman, late 2nd Gomastah on the Establishment of the Court of the Principal Sadr Amin of Tellicherry.

Respectfully Sheweth,

That Petitioner entered the Government service on 1st January 1833, and that his whole service amounted to a period of 35 years, 4 months and 25 days.

That Petitioner was first entertained in the late Auxiliary Court, that he was thrown out of employ at its abolition on 15th September 1843, and that an interval of more than a year elapsed before Petitioner could get a post in the Government Service which is in no way a bar to Petitioner's claim to his prior service.

That in 1851 a false charge was brought against him before the Magistrate of Tellicherry which though wholly unconnected with the Department in which he was serving, was referred to the then Principal Sadr Amin, who suspended him for a year, and the Session Judge on perusing the Calender dismissed him from the Service.

Against

Against this order of dismissal, Petitioner preferred an Appeal to the Court of Sadr and Fouzdari Adalat and the Judges of that Court, on a thorough investigation into the case, and reference to his antecedent conduct and qualifications as evidenced by the numerous testimonials presented to them, finally declared that Petitioner's case deserved their favorable consideration, that the charge against him was not made out, and accordingly ordered his restoration to the Service. Before and after this, Petitioner conducted his duties with zeal and uprightness & to the entire satisfaction of his superiors, and he need hardly say that this charge was brought against him by his enemies with the avowed intention of blackening his hitherto unsullied name.

That if the service acquired by Petitioner prior to his suspension be added to his subsequent service, it will entitle him to a half pension, and the exclusion of his former services is a matter of great grievance to him.

Under the above circumstances Petitioner humbly prays, that your Excellency will be pleased to take his case into favorable consideration and to sanction the payment of a pension equal to ½ of his pay at the time of his retirement from the service under the order of Government dated 13th June 1871, and for this act of benevolence, Petitioner shall as in duty bound,

Ever Pray.
