Treasury

TO THE Secretary to the Government of Madras
Pension Department.

SIR,

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of order 265 dated 26 instant and to submit that as special sanction of the Home Government is necessary to the grant of any pension to G. Narayana Rao and as the Secretary of State granted one of Rs. 6.4. only, any increase to that grant should be confirmed by the same authority. The Collector is clearly wrong in the statement which he makes to me (and probably repeats to Government) that the man was clearly entitled to a pension of Rs. 8.5.4.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your obedient servant
