Read the following letter from the Inspector-General of Police, dated 17th August 1871, No. 5339.

Order, 30th October 1871, No. 521.

Under Section 1 of the Police Service and Superannuation Rules, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to the individuals noted in the margin, who have been discharged from the Madras Town Police as unfit for further duty, after serving for the periods specified, gratuities of the amounts noted opposite to their names.

2. With reference to Nos. 3, 4, 5, and 6, it is observed that they have been recommended for gratuities of twelve months' pay, though their periods of service are in excess of twelve years. The Superannuation Rules contain no such restriction, and they are accordingly eligible respectively to maximum gratuities of Rupees 168, Rupees 91, Rupees 126, and Rupees 98. The Government have, however, reduced the gratuities of Nos. 3, 4, and 6 to the amounts above sanctioned, Nos. 3 and 4 having undergone the penalty of suspension, and No. 6 having been three times degraded for drunkenness and neglect of duty.

3. The sanction of the Government of India will be asked for the admission of Constable Calastrey Garoodachalam to the pension to which he would have been entitled had he served for one month and twenty-two days longer.

No. 2. To the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Fort St. George, 6th November 1871, No. 624.

I am directed to request the sanction of the Government of India for the admission, as a special case, of Garoodachalam Chetty, a Constable of the Madras Town Police, who has been discharged as unfit for further service, after service for fourteen years, ten months, and eight days, to the pension to which he would have been entitled had he been able to complete fifteen years' service. The man has actually been in the Force for fifteen years and eight days, but by a suspension for neglect of duty has lost two months' service.

Chief Secretary.
