In returning your memo of the 21st ultimo regarding Ramu Chevara Pillay's gratuity case, I have the honor to state that his services are proved from the records, as stated already in the letter of the 12th Idem that therefore query no-2 requires no answer. The applicant, although he ceased to do duty on the 17th March 1871, did not apply for gratuity until 16th May 1871, when the requisite medicinal Certificate being forwarded to the proper authorities directed to do so, produced one dated 25th Dec^r and the delay in forwarding this application was owing partly to the above circumstances, and partly to the search that had to be made into records for the preparation & verification of his service &

that the hit

The services of the withinmentioned individual having been partly verified from the records of this office and entirely from those of the Collector, he is eligible to an invalid gratuity of Rs. 12 equal to 6 months salary under Section 63 (a) of the Civil Pension Code for his services of years 28-2-18, after deducting his temporary service of 11 months and 3 days.

The delay in submission of application and in production of Medical Certificate has been explained by the collector in his letter No. 69 dated 21 March 1872.

The applicant does not appear to have drawn any acting allowance when he retired from service or to have received any gratuity for his services up to June 1860-
