ORDER THEREON, 20th May 1872, No. 412.

Akula Seshu, late Peon on the Establishment of the Collector of the Kistna District, was thrown out of employ in the year 1862, and applied for a compassionate allowance in 1864, but took no further steps to prosecute his claim until the year 1870.

2. The Honorable the Governor in Council considers that this delay should be held to bar his claim, and accordingly resolves to refuse the grant of a compassionate allowance in his case.

SIR,

With reference to your Office Assistant's Memo.
dated 22nd January 1872, I have the honor to return the Memo with the following explanation.

832. This insertion has been made in the register.

837. The applicant states that he applied for Compassionate allowance on 22nd March 1864 but the records up to November 1864 having all been destroyed by the Cyclone there is nothing to show whether or not it was received in the office. The man however has in his possession ^{an} receipt from the Postal Department said to have been taken by him at the time that his first application was sent registered by post. He has since produced a document before the Tahasildar purporting to have been a copy of his original application.
His second application was received in the year 1870 & was forwarded by your Office on 19th of last.

I have the honor
Sir

Yours most Obedt Servt
