Kanish Vithayya was a Gymnast in a Maratha Regiment up to 29th November 1862, on that date the salary was converted in Rajaput salary and all the establishment made acting. On February 19th all the establishment was by Collector's order made permanent. They all drew full pay while acting, but the Collector's order did not allege his order was to be retrospective.

The Register of application was prepared in this District while the applicant himself was then at Chingulput. His age was therefore not certified by any Officer here. The medical certificate which he submitted from Chingulput was forwarded to your Office along with the other papers connected with the case. His age was then declared by the Medical Officer. They, however, also to enclose a Register of application for Superannuation pension prepared on behalf of applicant by the Collector of Chingulput, in which the Sub Collector of the same District certifies the applicant's age is 55.
