Sir,

In forwarding an application for pension to Head writer T. Vardiah of this Office, I have the honor to draw your attention to his long and meritorious service in the hope that you will recommend his case to the favorable consideration of Government with the view of his receiving a pension equal to the full amount of his present pay Rupees 160 - - - per mensem.

2. He has been employed in this Office since 1828, and has been Head writer since 1841 a period of 32 years, which in that capacity is almost I should think unprecedented.

3. It is impossible to speak too highly of T. Vardiah. His intelligence is great & his zeal and energy beyond praise. I forward a few of the testimonials of the different Paymasters under whom he has served. He has unfortunately unfortunately lost those of some of the earlier Paymasters but I can myself perfectly well remember him 26 years ago when Major Harper was Paymaster and when I had frequently as Quarter Master of my Regiment to attend at the Pay Office & witnessed his intelligence and activity

It. I have said enough to show that J. Vurdiak's is no common case & now I leave it to your powerful advocacy in the confident hope that his long and faithful services will be recognised & rewarded by a just & liberal Government.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most Obedt Servant
