Pension.

Read the following papers:—

From the Master Attendant, Madras, No. 2217, dated 26th April 1872.
„ Officiating Accountant-General, No. 76, dated 7th May 1872.

ORDER THEREON, 27th May 1872, No. 435.

Under Sections 53 and 57 of the Civil Pension Code, the Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Mr. John Richard Leal, late Superintendent of the Madras Lighthouse, a superannuation pension of Rupees 35 per mensem for his superior service, amounting to twenty-six years, five months, and twenty-six days, with effect from 1st April 1872.

2. It appears from the Accountant-General's report that the post of Superintendent of the Lighthouse was paid from Imperial Revenues (which took all Port fees) up to 31st March 1858, since which date the charge has been debited to the Port Fund.

3. In accordance with Section 29, the pension now sanctioned must be debited partly to General Revenues and partly to the Port Fund according to the rule of proportions. The applicant's service on Imperial and Port Fund establishments having amounted to twelve years, five months, and twenty-six days in the former case and fourteen years in the latter, the proportionate sums chargeable to General Revenues and the Port Fund will be Rupees 16-2-0 and Rupees 18-14-0, respectively.
