My husband Shaik Abdulla was peon in the Kondavide Taluq up to the arrangements for taking in which he was thrown out of Employment.

My husband entered in the peon's post in the Kon-
-davedu Talug prior to the occurrence of the famine year (bandana); he was in the peon's post, in the Kon-
-davedu Talug until he was thrown out.

Two years before the occurrence of the famine year, he entered the Service. I don't know the fact of his ever being without employ from the time he entered the Service up to his being thrown out.

He was not without employ.

failed to detect an offence of theft committed in the house of a weaver. But having subsequently detected the crimes he was restored to his situation. With the exception of this, he was not without employ in the interim.

At last he was thrown out of Employment in the arrangements.

I was also a peon of Kondavide Talug and did duty along with him. I have therefore stated what I know.

Statement made by Shaik Hussain peon in the Sattinapalli Talug. 3rd January 1872

Shaik Abdulla was a peon in the Kondavide Talug. It is true that he was suspended above stated on the ground that he failed to detect the crimes in question.

As I was police peon in the Huzur & was Dhalayeh for some time and knew the circumstances, I have stated the fact.

He was again restored to his situation: he was in service up to the arrangements in which he was thrown out.

Read the following letter from the Collector of the Ristna District, Dated 2nd August 1871. No. 2349.

Order thereon 17th August 1871 No. 1432

The delay in the submission of the claim was not owing to any fault of the Applicant, but to the neglect of the District authorities, whereby in so many cases the interests of Applicants for pensionary Allowances have been compromised.

2. Though after the time which has elapsed, and owing to the death of the Applicant, his meritorious service cannot be proved, it seems clear that he was entitled to a gratuity for his proved service and a formal application to this end should now be submitted.

3. The petitioner will be referred to the following

Report of the Accountant General

The only service which could have been regarded at the time of retirement was that from 1855 to 1862 which would have given only a gratuity of Rs 15 or 3 months pay. There can be little doubt that the man was simply dismissed in 1852. The vague affidavits are contradicted by the fact of his name being long absent from the Establishment roll. District Officers should produce their local area to the ordinary enquiry. It is quite possible that the suspensions may not even have been at the time when the man's name was missing but as there is a long real break and the suspensions were but pay arrears which could not be carried, further reference is not thought necessary.

2. Deceased's total service is stated to have amounted to 30 yrs 3 mths 17 d^{ys} and had it been continuous he would have been entitled to a compassionate allowance of Rs 2-8 per mensem, but there are two breaks in the above period by which deceased's qualifying service is reduced to 7 yrs 0 mths 12 d^{ys} and the gratuity to which he would have been entitled to one of three months' pay (Rs 15).

3. From the Collector's letter of the 2nd August 1871 No 2349, it appears that deceased's name was submitted along with 157 others in December 1865 with a view to the grant of a compassionate compassionate allowance ¹⁸ that the list was returned for revision, that it was ^{then} discovered that a period of about a year and a half could not be verified from the records, and that, owing to Sheik Abdulla's previous decease, no affidavits could be taken in explanation of the break.

4. The widow's explanation, corroborated by the statements of two contemporaries of deceased, is to the effect that her husband was twice suspended for short periods for failures to detect crime, but the fact remains that there is a long break of 14 yrs 3 mths 14 d^{ys}, which is not satisfactorily accounted for by the explanation offered.

The existence of so long a break affords strong grounds for supposing that deceased was dismissed; at any rate his title compassionate allowance is defective at the time of his death and in the absence of any satisfactory explanation his service previous to the long break referred to cannot now be admitted so as to give his widow a claim to such allowance.

5. For his qualifying service of 7 yrs. Sheik Abdulla appears to have been entitled on being thrown out of employment to a gratuity of three months pay (Rs 15) and His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to authorize the payment of that sum to his widow Fatma Bee.
