From C. Venkatarangum
Naidoo } dated 27 May 1872

Order thereon 5th June 1872 No. 159

Petitioner is informed that the grant of a pension in his case being conditional on the refund of the two gratuities which he has received, his request to be exempted from the liability is quite inadmissible, nor can permission be accorded to him to make the refund by monthly instalments.

Note.

The man has received two gratuities, Rs 900 and Rs 600 total Rs 1,500. His pension is Rupees 25 per mensem, so that it will take just five years for his pension to accumulate to the sum of the gratuities, and, as he retired on the 15th July 1871, he can receive no pension till August 1876 unless he repays the gratuities. The man gives his age as 67, so that there is not much prospect of his enjoying the pension just granted. Still such requests as that now preferred have been invariably refused, and the amount to be refunded

is so considerable that, taking into consideration the age of the Memorialist and the amount of his pension, there is no reasonable prospect of its being recovered by instalments deducted from his pension.
