Sir,

Enclosures three.

With reference to G.O. No. 395 dated 15 May Pension Department I have the honor to inform you that the constables referred to were originally discharged as being over 55 years of age before it was known that the orders of Government of India directing discharge after 55 years, did not refer to officers on a salary of less than 10 Rupees.

2. On receipt of the Gratuity Rolls the Superintendent was directed to place the men before a Medical Officer with a view to ascertain if they were fit for further service. They were accordingly placed before the civil surgeon who declared them to be unfit but as they had been originally discharged as being over age they were not brought before the Invaliding Committee which assembled in January.

3. There is but one medical officer at Rajahmundry and to assemble a special Committee would be necessary to summon the civil surgeon of Cocanada 40 miles distant.

I have the honor to be
