W. H. Williams
Accountant-General.

To the Secretary to Govt. of Madras.

No. 322.

The name in the Annual Returns has been rendered into English from the Tamil Returns received from the Taluk & has been varied in spelling according to the idea of correctness entertained by the person translating the copy or preparing the original. The name is a peculiar one and frequently used in abbreviated forms such as those given. In the Office Service Register the name is spelt "Aramamuthu" Aggar.

In the application for Pension it is spelt "Aravamuthengar" as given by the applicant in person when his marks of identification were recorded.

The Service from October 1838 was only temporary & ought not to have been shown in the Annual Returns. The applicant's first permanent employment was from the 30th December 1839.
