SIR,

In the Permanent Payable Order issued from this office on the 28 June 1867 one of the descriptive marks of Sivopah Naik according to the Certificate of Compassionate allowance No 382 is "Bewitro Color". The Deputy Collector of Coimbatore has substituted "Dark" without any authority from this office or from Government. I have the honor therefore to report the same for the sanction of Government.

I have the honor to be
Sir

Your Obedient Servant

Offg. Accountant General, dated 15th June 1872 No. 164.

Order thereon. D. Colind 28th June 1872, No. 505.

The Accountant General is competent to authorize necessary alterations in the

Note

There does not appear to be any provision in the Pension Code, on the subject, accordingly I presume, there is no necessity for a reference to Government.
