Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department, 28th June 1872.

Read application for a pension from the Civil Judge of Tranquebar, dated 18th September 1871.

Report of the Accountant-General, dated 16th May 1872, No. 92.

ORDER THEREON, 28th June 1872, No. 517.

Application is made for the grant of a pension to Trivady Annavien, late third Goomastah in the District Munsif's Court at Tritrapoondy, Tanjore District.

2. The applicant's total service extends to 33 years 9 months 2 days, of which 9 years 2 months 15 days were in inferior, and 24 years 6 months 17 days in superior grades. After deducting a period of 3 years 10 months passed in an acting appointment, the applicant's total service prima facie qualifying for pension amounts to 20 years 8 months 17 days.

2. The Accountant-General has, however, in the first instance admitted only 8 years 1 month 19 days, rejecting the applicant's service prior to September 1862, on the ground of its having been passed on a Civil Court Contract Establishment, and representing that, although similar cases have been admitted on the authority of the Resolutions of the Government of India, Financial Department, No. 2149, dated 26th May 1863, and No. 374-G, dated 3rd February 1863, whereof the latter recites that the establishments of Deputy Collectors and Munsifs in Madras had been sanctioned in detail by Government, yet that, inasmuch as that statement is true in regard to Munsifs' establishments from August 1862 only, service before such detailed sanction was given would give no claim to pension.

3. On a further reference to the Accountant-General, that Officer reports that the scale of District Munsifs' Office Establishments was first sanctioned in detail by Government in August 1862, but that those establishments were revised in 1853 and instructions issued by the Sadr Court to local officers as to their details, and that, although this fact does not necessarily confer any claim to pension on the servants of those establishments, the formal sanction of Government not having been accorded, he is of opinion they may be treated as Government servants from the date of the orders of the Sadr Court, and as this cannot be ascertained with accuracy, owing to the records connected with the subject not being forthcoming, he recommends the adoption of an arbitrary date, viz., 1st January 1854.

4. This would admit a further period of 3 years 3 months 7 days as qualifying service in the present case, and entitle the applicant to a gratuity of 11 months' pay, but he would still lose service to the extent of 9 years 3 months 21 days.

5. The Government observe that, prior to the Resolution of the Government of India, dated 29th January 1862, No. 1005, servants on the establishments of District Munsifs in this Presidency were always considered entitled to pension, and that, on a representation of all the circumstances of the case to the Government of India, their prohibition was removed by Resolution of 3rd February 1863, No. 374-G, nor was any limit as to the date from which such service should reckon for pension prescribed.

6. In dealing with previous applications of a similar nature, moreover, Government have admitted service on establishments paid from a contract allowance without any limitation as to date, considering that the fact of the form of such establishments being laid down and varied by the Civil Judge, not the Munsif, and of appointments to posts thereon being made by the former, removes the case of employes in District Munsifs' Courts from the operation of the rule prohibiting the grant of pension to those paid from contract allowances.

7. The Government resolve in the present instance also to adhere to their former interpretation of the orders on the subject, and, under Sections 49 and 56 (6) Civil Pension Code, to grant to Trivady Annayien for his qualifying superior service of 20 years 8 months 17 days an invalid pension of Rupees 3-10-8, equal to a third of his salary for the past five years, with effect from 26th October 1870,

SIR,

Returning the enclosures of your Memo 47 dated 21st ultimo, I have the honor to say that the scale of District Moonsiffs' Office Establishment was first sanctioned in detail by this Government in India on 14th August 1802. That the Moonsiffs' Establishment was revised in 1853 (Judicial proceedings 499 - dated 30th August Confirmed by G.O. dated 27 January 1854) and in the latter the Madras Court was instructed to furnish to the Audit Department showing the distribution of the 118 District Moonsiffs, their allowances fixed and personal, and the sums granted for their several Office Establishments. The statement so sent to the Audit Department has not been traced either in this office or the Court, but the Madras seems to have given instructions to local offices as to the details of the Establishment to be entertained and though such an order issued without N.B. Why not shown in the annual returns and record in this office from 1848 to 1853 on p. 13 instead of p. 12 as shown in the original? The 20 April 1868, 140 Words Commission under 1868 without the formal approval of Government + does not necessarily confer any claim to pension in the servants of these Establishments, yet as I find that the Establishment charge was drawn separately from that for "Sadarnard" that the Establishment was paid during a Moonsiff's absence on leave though the Sadarnard allowance was withheld, that fines and deductions on account of absence on leave were refunded into the Government Treasury, and ^{is} must necessarily conclude from these facts that the Employees were really servants of Government and not of the Moonsiff, in whose Establishment they were serving. I think they should be treated as Government servants from such date as the distribution was prescribed by the Sudder. Unfortunately the arrangement was not notified by Circular, and a search made in the records of the High Court (in compliance with informal application) has not discovered the necessary papers; probably a separate letter was written to each district and as the proceedings above quoted of 27 January only notified Confirmation by Government of India of the distribution of officers prescribed in 499 dated 30 August 1853, it is not improbable that these letters had been issued in the mean season. If for convenience

Government wish to assume an arbitrary date I would suggest 1st January 1837. This would add years 3-3-7 to the service of the applicant in the case out of which this correspondence has arisen, and would add P. 33 (or 3 months pay) to his gratuity.

REPORT OF THE

	Years.	Months.	Days.
Service qualifying for pension is proved for a total period of...	8-	1-	19
In the last 5 years of his service the average pay of the applicant's permanent post was ...	Rs. 11-	A. -	P. -

Applicant is eligible to a pension of Rupees 88 only per annum, equal to 8 months of his average salary during the last 5 years, under Clause 56 of the Revised Pension Rules. Co 2e

The Civil Judge in his letter No 141 dated 24th February 1872 explains the delay in submission of application and Medical Certificate and for delay in this office see letter No 682 dated 1 March 1872. In some cases service in a Civil Court Contract Establishment has been allowed to count for pension and is the authority of the Government of India Financials dated 26 May 1863 and 31st 9 dated 3rd Feb 1863 whereof the latter recites that the Establishment of Dy Comm and Messing in Madras had been sanctioned in detail by Government but in the case of Messing this is only true from Aug 1862, and service before such detailed sanction was given would give no pension claim.

ORDER OF GOVERNMENT.

8537
4082515.

After deducting a period of 3 yrs - 10 mths passed in an acting appointment, the Applicants total service, prima facie, qualifying for pension, amounts to 20 yrs - 8 mths - 14 days.

2. The Accountant General has, however in the first instance admitted only 9 yrs - 1 mth - 10 days rejecting the Applicants service prior to September 1862, on the ground of its having been passed on a Civil Court Contract Establishment, and representing that although similar cases have been admitted on the authority of the Resolutions of the Govt.

Govt of India, Financial Dept. No 2149 dated 26th May 1863 and No 3749 dated 3rd February 1863 whereof, the latter recites that the Establishments of H^y. Collectors and Munsifs in Madras had been sanctioned in detail by Govt, yet that in-as-much as that statement is true in regard to Munsifs' Establishments from August 1862 only, service before such detailed sanction was given, would give no claim to pension.

3. On a further reference to the Accountant General that Officer reports that the scale of District Munsifs' office

Office Establishments was first sanctioned in detail by Govt. in August 1852, but that those Establishments were revised in 1853 and instructions issued by the Sudder Court to local Officers as to their details, and that although this fact does not necessarily confer any claim to pension on the servants of those Establishments, the formal sanction of Govt. not having been accorded, he is of opinion they may be treated as Govt. servants from the date of the order of the Sudder Court, and as this cannot cannot be ascertained with accuracy owing to the records connected with the subject not being forthcoming, he recommends the adoption of an arbitrary date viz: 1st January 1854.

4. This would admit a further period of 3 yrs.
3 mths. 7 dys as qualifying service in the present case, and entitle the Applicant to a gratuity of 11 months pay, but he would still lose service to the extent of 9 yrs. 3 mths.
21 dys.
5. The Govt. observe that prior to the Resolution of the Govt. of India, dated 29th January N^o 1005, servants on the Establishments

Establishments of District Munsifs in this Presi-dency were always con-sidered entitled to pen-sion, and that on a representation of all the circumstances of the case to the Govt of India their prohibition was removed by Reso-lution of 3rd February 1863 N^o 3749, nor was any limit as to the date from which such service should reckon for pension, prescribed.

6. In dealing with previous applications of a similar nature, moreover, Govt have admitted service on Establishments paid from a Contract allow-ance

=ance without any limita-tion as to date, consi-dering that the fact of the form of such Es-tablishments being laid down and varied by the Civil Judge, not the Munsif, and of ap-pointments to posts there-on being made by the former, removes the case of employees in Dist. Munsif's Courts from the op-eration of the Rule pro-hibiting the grant of pension to those paid from Contract Allowance.
7. The Govt resolve in the present instance also to adhere to their former interpretation of the orders on the subject, and under Sections 49 & 56(b) Civil Pension Code, to grant to Privady Annam for for his qualifying superior service of 20 yrs - 8 mths 17 dyp an Invalid pension of Rs 3-10-8 equal to a third of his salary for the past five years, with effect from 26th Oct. 190-
