FROM THE ACCOUNTANT GENERAL

TO THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

Pension Department.

SIR,

With reference to the application for pension on behalf of Bathini Guruswami herewith accompanying I have the honor to report that the man has already in the gratuity granted by Order No. 353 dated 15th November 1866 received all that can be granted. In 1840 he was dismissed for misconduct, and had less than 17 years service after his re-employment.

Transferred to the Collector of Malabar, who should submit an application in the proper form on behalf of petitioners. If petitioners are otherwise eligible for pension the Government are willing to admit them to pension on their repaying the gratuities paid to them. The break in P. Babu's Service from June 1860 to July 1862 was owing to reduction of Establishment, and in consideration of the fact that petitioners were probably ^{ignorant} of the existing regulations, the Government are willing to make their case an exception to the rule, which lays down that the intention to repay a gratuity must be stated immediately on re-employment.

PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following letter from the Collector of Villars, dated 22nd June 1872. No. 1492.

service 37 years, 11 months 5 days.
2. The Government in their order of the 16th November 1866, No. 353, sanctioned payment of a gratuity of Rs 18 12 0, to

3. Quaravappa subsequently petitioned to be permitted to refund the gratuity and to be admitted to a pension. Permission to refund the gratuity was conceded provided petitioner was otherwise eligible to pension, but having been dismissed in 1840 for misconduct, he has not given service to his credit and is therefore not eligible to pension apart from the disqualification arising from the omission to refund the gratuity granted.

4. The Government observe that Allahabad Hussain and Patta Subbaya (whose cases were disposed of conjointly with petitioners in G. O. No. 107 November 1866, No. 253) and Saad Allahabad whose case was reconsidered in G. O. 21st June 1871, No. 309, were treated with exceptional indulgence because the breaks breaks in their services, respectively, were so short as to favor the presumption that the punishment awarded in their cases was intended to be suspension rather than dismissal.

5. The same argument does not however apply to the case of the present Applicant who was out of employ for 3 years 6 mos. 17 days, a break which cannot be overlooked.

cc.

Note.

The Honorable Secy. Genl. remarks on Saad Allahabad's case that the break may be overlooked in cases where re-employment followed dismissal within 6 or 8 months.
