Gratuity.

Read the following papers:—

Application for gratuity from the Collector of Coimbatore, dated 31st August 1872.
Report of Accountant-General, dated 9th October 1872, No. 415.

ORDER THEREON, 22nd October 1872, No. 778.

Application is made for the grant of a gratuity to Coimbatore Anniah, late third-class Revenue Inspector, Pollachy Taluq, Coimbatore District, whose qualifying service in superior grades amounts to fourteen years, ten months, and two days.

2. It appears that the applicant was removed from his post on the 31st December 1871 under the fifty-five years' rule, but that on the 10th June, after the lapse of five months, application was made for the sanction of Government to his retention in the public service for a further period of five years, subject to annual report on his efficiency, on the ground that he is physically fit for further service. Sanction was accorded under date the 2nd July, but on the representation of the Head Assistant Collector that Anniah is mentally incompetent for the efficient performance of his duty, this application for gratuity has been submitted. The Collector does not state whether he concurs in the Head Assistant's estimate of the applicant's capacity, at variance as it is apparently with the opinion formed so recently by himself.

3. At the time the applicant was called upon to retire his service fell short by only one month and twenty-eight days of the period which would entitle him to a pension of one-third of his salary, and from the fact that the Collector recommended his retention it may be inferred that his condition, physical and mental, was not such as to demand his immediate removal. The Government have recently expressed their disapproval of such summary removals without regard to the interests of the individual, and accordingly resolve to direct Anniah's reinstatement with a view to the completion of the period of service which will entitle him to pension. Should the Collector deem his retention in the public service for a longer period inadvisable, and on this point the Government desire a special report, the application for retiring allowance can be resubmitted.
