Memo.

Enclosure 1.

Person Register of
Shroff deothoosamy
Chetty.

The applicant retired under the 55 years Rule on the 18th January 1872. Having appeared before the Collector, he was considered by him as efficient; after medical examination, the Joint Surgeon also declared applicant fit for further service. He was recommended for retirement under date the 20th June 1872. But, in their Proceedings dated 9th July, the Board declined to support the recommendation, the man being, in their opinion, too old (64 years of age) to continue in service any longer. His service list was then prepared and verified, which accounts for the delay.
