Fort Saint George,

FROM THE ACCOUNTANT GENERAL TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

TO THE

Secretary to Government

SIR,

2101
The order of Government 101 dated 10th April 1867 gave permission to issue pensions without requiring the personal attendance of pensioners, accepting in lieu thereof a life Certificate signed by a Government servant drawing not less than Rupees 100 per mensem; but the ruling contained in Section 82 of the Pension Code must be held to have superseded that order, ~~while~~^{since} No. 200 dated 10th April is suited to the circumstances rather of upcountry Stations than of the presidency town. His Excellency in Council will perhaps see no objection to renewing the indulgence of 1867, but in consideration of the positive orders which conclude Section 82^b of the Code, and on general grounds, I think that all male pensioners should be required to appear in person to receive, or before receiving, the pension due in April; no doubt it will be more convenient to them to attend at this office than first first to send and ascertain who is the gazetted officer in charge, and then where he lives.

I have the honors to be,
Sir

Your Obedient Servant

Wm. J. Fox

Political Pensioners and was not communicated to this Department, but probably the practice has been the same in regard to Civil Pensioners

With reference to the ^{acting} Accountant General's suggestion that all male pensioners should be required to appear in person to receive, or before receiving the pension due in April, the Government deserve that the disbursing Officer is by Section 82 (b) of the Pension Code ^{enjoined} ~~represented~~ to take all possible precautions to prevent imposition and is therefore vested under the provisions of that section ^{with power} to require the attendance of pensioners, not being females unaccustomed

But this is an unreasonable duty & the Officer has to comply with the order of the 10th April 1912 to 200 in, as remarked by the ^{acting} Accountant General, suited only to the circumstances of up-country stations and was not intended to apply to the Presidency town where, whenever necessary, pensioners should be required to attend at the Accountant General's office.

I am directed to request to be circulated at all in a letter.
