Proceedings of the Madras Government.

Read the following letter from the Civil and Session Judge of Tellicherry dated 17th September 1872. N^o 269.

Order thereon. 26th September 1872. N^o 302.

The Governor in Council observes that the sanction of the Supreme Government would not be necessary for the retention of the man concerned in the service, were he still so employed; but unless the Judge is prepared to certify more decidedly as to his continuing efficiency, the case does not appear to be one in which the removal which has taken place should be cancelled.

Sir,

Karutadatha
Kammaram Nair
late Head Gomas tah in District Mysore Court of Havay.

I have the honor to forward for the orders of Government a case where the individual marginally noted was, when the 55 years' rule came into force recommended by the District Munsif for an extension of service, but whose case I did not then recommend under the impression that only cogent reasons would justify such recommendation. Under recent orders of Government however it appears that the 55 years' order is to be put in force only when the officer at the head of the Department is satisfied that the officer is unfit for further service and that the interests of the officers concerned themselves are to be considered as to whether their claims to retiring allowance are likely to be seriously prejudiced. This officer if he had not been made to retire would now have completed all but about 8 months of the service required for half pension, but he has been out of service for thirteen months, and I think he would be able to complete his period of service if Government allowed the thirteen months he was compulsorily unemployed to count as service, or even if he were required to serve the full one year and eight months required to complete 25 years. As his age is so near that of 60 that to enable him to serve his full time the orders of the Government of India would be requisite. I at present forbear reinstating him till I know the opinion of the Government and therefore have the honor to request you to obtain their orders on the matter.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

In forwarding an application for pension on behalf of Karutadatha Kammaram Nair, late Head Gomastah in the District Munsifs Court of Cavery, I have the honor to enclose copy of a letter addressed by me to Government regarding that individual and the Order passed thereon, and to state that in my opinion the efficiency of the officer is not so very great as to counterbalance the inconvenience of altering the arrangements made on his compulsory retirement and therefore I do not recommend his reinstatement.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
