Memo

The Dy. Sub Collector has the honor to return, with necessary corrections the application for gratuity received back with your memo to explain that the history of the service of Ambu Nain, peon, was gathered from the old pay abstracts retained in this office which show collectively, the names of the officials employed on both Sub Collector's & Joint Magistrate's Departments. In the year 1853 when the Sub Collector's establishment was transferred to Palghat, the peon was transferred to the Head Assistant Collector's Department which was then ordered to be at Tellicherry from 1st April 1853 to 30th September 1861. In the year 1861 when the Sub Collector's office was again ordered back to Tellicherry the said peon then rejoined the Sub Collector's establishment and was retained at Tellicherry. The Medical certificate was produced on 20th June 1872.
