SIR,

*returned with Enclosures

In reply to your Memo* dated 8th July last, on the subject of Ananthacharri's gratuity, I have the honor to forward, as required in query No 27, translations of orders under which the Applicant was dismissed and reinstated.

Query No 37. 2. Mr Crole reports that it was owing to a mistake on the part of the Talug Officials that the Applicant was allowed to draw pay till the 13th December 1870, while he ought to have drawn it only up to Dec 9th, and I have written to the Sub Collector Collector to recover forthwith the four days' pay drawn in excess.

3. The Sub Collector states that the leave statement of the applicant was prepared with reference to the leave lists furnished by the Tahsildar, which are now found to be inaccurate, the entries in the bills of your Office being correct, and the register is accordingly amended.
