I know Vadamodalu Nursimlu. When Mr. Sloan was the Principal Sudder Ameen, the said Nursimlu was appointed as a jail peon. I do not know in what year it was. When the Police Corps was established in 1861, he became a Constable being transferred from the jail peon's post I do not know when he was removed from the Constable's post. He used to draw Rs 5- when he was jail peon and Rs 6 after he became a Constable I know these circumstances as I and Nursimlu served in one place.

Deposition given on oath by Sayed Alli late constable No. 730, before the Collector and Magistrate of Vizagapatam District on 31st August 1871.

I was appointed a Peon under the Kutwal of Vatada in the Taluq of Sarvasiddhi about thirty six years ago when Mr Arbuthnot was Collector. I used to receive a salary of Rs 3- shortly afterwards Mr Conway came and raised the pay of all the Peons to Rs 4. I was at that place about twenty years or until the abolition of the Kutwal's post at the above mentioned place, when I was made a Police Peon for Vizagapatam which post I held for 4 years and that of Kutwali Peon in the Town for 2 years. The Police force being then introduced, I with all the others entered it. I was in the Police until 13th July last when I was removed as unfit for further service. I shall prove this fact by Chintakayala Sanyasi and Sayed Alli.
