Reply to letter from Accountant General dated 3rd October 1872 regarding Pension to the late Supdt of Customs Calicut.

As the individual was required to retire under the fifty five years order no application was made by him before retirement. This death occurred soon after retirement. The fact that a small sum was due was overlooked. Subsequent delay arose from the records having had to be traced to verify his services.

Calicut 8th November 1872.
