To

W. D. Hudleston Esq. C. S.
Chief Secretary to Government Madras

The humble Petition of Anne Ashton late Matron of the Vepery Lock Hospital

Humbly & Respectfully Sheweth

That your Petitioner held the post of Matron of the Vepery Lock Hospital for a period of nearly four years, during which time she was never unfavorably reported on, and no fault whatever was found with her by any one in Authority.

2. That your Petitioner first received intimation of the abolition of the Vepery Lock Hospital on the 1st of November current and has received pay up to the 2nd only of the same month, that is up to the day when she was directed to transfer the patients to Black Town Hospital

3 That your Petitioner with her children are thus suddenly thrown on the world without any means of support whatever other than a Pension of Rupees 3-1-8 per Mensem 4 That your Petitioner, believing that she was entitled to the Month's privilege leave in every calendar year, of which she has never availed herself, also to some notice that her services were to be dispensed with applied to Mr Balfour, Inspector General P. M. D. to recommend your Petitioner for a gratuity. A copy of Mr Balfour's reply is annexed

5 That your Petitioner now submissively submits the Government to consider her case and grant her a gratuity or subsistence allowance for a reasonable time to enable to seek other employment-

For which as in duty bound.

Petitioner shall ever pray

Anne Ashton

Report of the Accountant General

No 543

The undersigned has the honor to report that of the Matrons as Matrons of the Lock Hospital, Teynham, is considered to have rendered superior service, who will be entitled to one month's pay for every completed year of her service during which she was of the Civil Pension Code.

Should Government have any doubt that the Matrons of the Matrons is such as to warrant their being placed on higher service the will not be entitled to any thing as her service is apparently less than 5 years, (see section 63(a) of the Civil Pension Code.
