ORDER THEREON, 28th February 1873, No. 121.

2. With reference to the Salem Civil Judge's remark that no service books have been issued to his Court, his attention is drawn to G. O., 27th March 1872, No. 387, Financial Department, prescribing the course to be adopted for obtaining a supply of service books. To

The Accountant General

Sir,

1. I have the honour to return your Memo of the 17th ultimo, and to reply to the queries made therein.

2. Mahomed Hasim was transferred to the office of Police from under the orders of his official Superior, the District Magistrate. A translation of the order is enclosed for your information.

3. Ramasami Naider was retained in the service from the 20th January to the 22nd idem, because it took two days for him to come from Salem, where he obtained his medical certificate.

to Coosoor where the Sub Collector's Office was. He could not be removed until the Certificate was produced before the proper authority.

4. Gollah hooni Rungani's name was spelt differently simply from the fact that "Gollah" is a Telugu word and there being properly no "G" in Tamil, his distinctive Caste name was in the Tamil list spelt with a "K". The use of the letters "U" and "E" was only a clerical error. Both renderings of the word are incorrect. It should have been spelt "Kollar".

5. "Condigai Gungana's" name was entered in the Register of 1868 as "Kundigai Kungani", because Canarese, Telugu and Tamil are all three spoken in the Coosoor Taluk. "Kundigi" is merely the Canarese equivalent for "Condigai" and "Kungani" the Tamil way of spelling "Gungadu" which is the proper Telugu rendering rendering of the word, but which owing to the great admixture of Canarese up here has been corrupted into "Gungana".

6. I am unable to state why the late Collector did not forward certificates of unfitness for further service. These are now transmitted.

7. No Service Books have been prepared for any of the applicants, above referred to, on account of these not having been supplied to this district when they retired.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant.
