Transferred to the Collector of Nellore, who should submit an application in the proper form on behalf of petitioners. If petitioners are otherwise eligible for pension, the Government are willing to admit them to pension on their refunding the gratuities paid to them. The break in P. Balu's service from June 1860 to July 1862 was owing to reduction of establishment, and in consideration of the fact that petitioners were probably ignorant of the existing regulations, the Government are willing to make their case an exception to the rule which lays down that the intention to refund

e gratuity must be stated immediately on re-employment.-

PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following ~~letter~~ papers.

From the Collector of Nellore dated 22d July 1872 No 1758.

From the Accountant General. " Do 16th November 1872 No 41.

Order thereon 13th January 1873 No 16.

Application is made for the grant of an invalid pension on the inferior scale to Pagadala Babaiah late peon in the Revenue Settlement Department, Nellore. The applicant's total service amounts to 38 years 9 Mos and 9 days but owing to his dismissal for misconduct he is debarred from reckoning the period prior to 12th July 1845 and the qualifying service is reduced thereby to 25 yrs 4 Mos and 25 days, which does not give a title to pension on the inferior scale.

No 1758.

Pension application in favor of Pagadala Babaiah, late Peon in the Revenue Settlement Department.

Sent to Accountant General.

2. The applicant's service, from his reinstatement after dismissal to his final retirement, is composed of four distinct periods as shown in the margin. For the first term of 14 yrs 10 Mo & 30 days the applicant has already received a gratuity amounting to Rs 15; the remaining three periods amount in the aggregate to 10 yrs 5 Mo 25 days & entitle ~~the applicant~~ him to a gratuity of Rs 2-1 equal to 4 Months' pay.

3. It appears that the applicant has twice petitioned to be permitted to refund the gratuity granted for a portion of his service, a pension for the whole term being granted in lieu thereof. On the first occasion the conversion was refused on the ground that the application application had not been preferred within the prescribed time (vide G O. 13th January 1872 to 13); on the second, the Collector was directed to submit an application on the proper form, the Government expressing that provided the petitioner proved otherwise eligible for pension, permission to refund the gratuity would be conceded (vide G O. 26th February 1873.

4. An examination of the history of the applicant's service shows that he was twice dismissed for misconduct and that his total qualifying service does not entitle him to a pension. With reference to the Deputy Accountant General's report, there is no reason why the period of service from 11th June 1860 to 28th October 1861 should not be allowed to reckon as the break which followed was due, not to dismissal, but to the applicant's discharge as unfit for further service on the Police, and in a similar case disposed of in G.O. 28th March 1870 No 140, such service was admitted.

5. Accordingly the Government resolve to grant to P. Babulu an invalid gratuity of Rs 24. which is the maximum retiring allowance to which he is entitled under the Rules.
