I first entered service as Land Customs Peon in the Tummerkôd Talug in 1838. when Mr Mattison (?) was Collector, my pay was four rupees.

Four years and nine months afterwards I was transferred at my own request to Chilla Kalumpett, which was a Zamindary estate under attachment under Government management, on the same pay.

Six months transferred me to Ponnapakkum, where I served as Peon on four rupees a month for about eighteen years or Seventeen years.

After this on the recommendation of Mr Porter I was appointed by Mr Cotton as orderly on Rs 5 in his Anjur Establishment.

When the two districts were amalgamated I was thrown out of employ and remained so for about three months.

I was then taken as Silladar Peon in the Tummerkôd Taluq - afterwards I entered the new Police
