Letter 11/11/73.
 Dated 11 February.

Subject.
 Request to forward a fresh
 No. 11/11/73. in relation to Subd. Secy.
 Late Nurse in the Lock Hospital
 Hospital - as mentioned in letter
 No. 11/11/73. from Lock Hospital Madras. No. 2/73.

16/2/73

I, P. N. Mackenzie Assistant Surgeon
 do hereby certify that I carefully examined Subd. Secy's late nurse of the Lock Hospital before that her age is by her own statement 55 years and by appearance about 55 years, and that I find her to be unfit for further service on account of bodily infirmity not likely to be remedied by medical treatment, and which renders her unable to discharge the duties as well as the clerical duties of her appointment. To the best of my judgment, the cause of disqualification is not the result of intemperance or other irregular habits.

Lutchins was for many years (about 10) the only nurse attached to the female Ward of the Eye Infirmary. She was a useful, intelligent, sober and respectable woman, and left the Hospital for a better paid appointment.

Certified that the records of the Vepery Lock Hospital shew that Nurse Sutchnoo was entertained on the 1st January 1869 - that her salary was Rs 10 a month - and that she was discharged on the 2nd November 1872 the date on which the Vepery Lock Hospital was abolished.

The Nurse has no service book.

— This is to Certify that the Records of the Pay of the Establishment of the Eye Infirmary, do not go back further than January 1862, that in the Detailed Statement of the Medical Establishment as it stood on 1st May, 1862, Luckmoo, Nurse, is entered as having been Appointed 7th March 1859, and in the similar Statement for 1863 a similar entry is made in ink, but a pencil note in the margin stands June 1860, and that the acquittance rolls show that her pay was Rs 4 per mensem from January 1862 to October 1865, and from November 1865 it was Rs 6 per mensem. There is no evidence to show when she left the Eye Infirmary, as the woman engaged in her stead also bore the same name "Luckmoo".
