Head Assistant Collector's office

Cannur, 17th July 1872.

From,

A. Rice Esquire,

Acting Head Assistant Collector,

Coimbatore

To,

A. Wedderburn Esquire,

Collector of Coimbatore.

Sir,

your letter No 605 Dated 11th July 1872.

Though Appoovier may seem physically fit for further service, yet I cannot help, however disagreeable it is to me to do so, bringing to your notice that Venkatachettan Pillay, the late Tahsildar and Appoovier's immediate superior, reported to me that he was mentally unfit to continue to serve as a Revenue Inspector, and when it is taken into account that a Revenue Inspector's duties require a man to be active and almost constantly on the move, it will be seen that Appoovier, who is some 57 years of age, is scarcely physically fit for the duties of his former post. I would not object to his being appointed appointed a Goomastah; but I cannot conscientiously consent to his being reappointed Revenue Inspector. As it is, great difficulty is experienced in Pulladum Talug in getting some of the Revenue Inspectors to do their work, and if Appoosier be reinstated, matters will, I have no doubt, before long, come to a dead lock, and I think it would be scarcely fair to hold the Tahsildars responsible under such circumstances for such a state of things.

As I said before, I would have no objection to his getting a Goomastahship.

I have &c

Collector of Coimbatore.

To,

The Under Secretary to Government,

Pension Department, Madras.

Sir,

In reply to G. O. No. 836 dated 10th December 1872, requesting me to inform them whether I agreed with the Head Assistant Collector's estimate of the capacity of Revenue Inspector Approver, I have the honor to annex copy of the Head Assistant's letter to me on the subject.

2. There is no doubt that if a Revenue Inspector performed his duty, he should be a man of active habits. I have seen, however, more activity in men past 55 years than in

in some very much below it. It is a matter of constitution. but it is undertaking considerable responsibility on my part, to recommend a man for continuance in a post for which his immediate superior so unhesitatingly decides that he is unfit--

3- I find that there may be a probability of his age lessening his ability for the energy required of a Revenue Inspector, and as his change to a more sedentary employment, will lead to a decrease of salary, the applicant is prepared, in preference, to take his pension, which he may be supposed to have earned at the age of 57-

4- I therefore support his application for pension--

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
your most obedient servant.

Translation of a Taked from the Collector of Coimbatore to the Avenashy Sub magistrate dated 20th November 1862 No 35-

As you did not appear to be competent to transact the duties of a Sub magistrate, you are from this date transferred to the post of Cultiva-tion Inspector of Palladium Talug, on a salary of Rs 14 a month. You are therefore to deliver over to the Tahsil
-dar of the said Talug, the seals &c of the above office in your charge, and carefully transact the duties of the cultivation Inspector

Approvers was appointed as 14th Gomastah in the Zillah Court at Calicut, in place of one dismissed. But the latter having been restored to office, Approver lost his employment on the 12th May 1840. Hence the break No. 1.

The 2nd break is due to the abolition of the late Zillah Court at Calicut, and the 3rd to the applicant having failed to rejoin his appointment before the expiration of the leave, which he had obtained, from 27th October 1850 in the Sinecure District.

Approvers's pay was twice reduced as noted below:—

The first reduction on the 1st July 1860 from the post of Sinecure of Coimbatore Valley on on 24th Peepes to that of Cultivation Inspector on Peepes 20, is due to the introduction of the Honorable Mr. Jellie's arrangements from that date.

On the 20th November 1862, the applicant was degraded from the post of Sub Magistrate of Anuashy to that of Cultivation Inspector of Palladam, on account of his inefficiency for the former office, vide accompanying translation of the Collector's Sakeed dated 20th November 1862 No 35.

3. The applicant's service had to be verified, not only in this District, but also in Simunelly and Malabar. Having appeared before the Collector, he was found physically fit for further service, and when recommended for retention in service for a further period, with reference to rules in the Revised Service Code, his Division Officer brought to notice that he was mentally incompetent to hold the post of Revenue Inspector. Applicant was then sent for to have his descriptive marks taken, but did not present himself until the 14th September 1872, which was
