GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

16th May 1873, No. 267.

Gratuity.

Read the following papers:—

From Capt. C. L. HIGHMOOR, for Acting Inspector-General of Police (through the Accountant-General), to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 24th February 1873, No. 629.

I have the honor to submit, for the orders Government, an application for the grant of a gratuity to Inspector H. Doyle of Godavari District.

2. The Inspector has served in the Police for eleven years and was formerly a soldier in Her Majesty's 108th Regiment. His character appears to have been generally good. He is now unfit for further service as certified by the Medical Committee.

3. I beg to recommend that a gratuity of eleven months' pay, viz., Rupees 1,100, may be sanctioned under the rules of the Civil Pension Code.

Reply, E. No. 913.

With reference to the within, the undersigned has the honor to inform him that Inspector H. Doyle was granted nine months' sick leave, which he availed himself of from the 6th March 1872, and remained in the General Hospital at Madras on that leave till the date of his discharge, viz., 25th November 1873.

No service book was supplied to him as the Civil Pension Codes were only received in this office in July 1872, and the Superintendent of Police, Godavari, was supplied with those service books on 30th October 1872.

The Inspector has had no other leave during his service on forfeiture of full or half-pay except the abovementioned leave on medical certificate.

Certificate and Report of Accountant-General.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for ten years, seven months, and twenty-one days; and that an invalid gratuity not exceeding Rupees 1,000 is admissible under Section 56 (a) of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verified. It will be observed from the enclosed medical certificate that the results of the applicant's incapacity for further service are due to his own imprudence.

His service in Her Majesty's 108th Regiment cannot be taken into account when calculating service for pension under Section 6, Civil Pension Code.
