Memorandum for orders.

The Acting Commissioner General submits an application for the grant of an invalid's pension for Superior Service to one Seagaroy Chetty, late a 3rd Class Clerk in the Executive Commissioner's Office at Trichinopoly.

2. This man's total service amounts to 28 ⁹/₁₂ ^m but the Ag Controller of Military Accounts deducts 11 months spent on leave and thus reducing the service to less than 26 years prevents the grant of the 1/2 salary pension which could

Could have been granted if the service was one of twenty five years

3. From a letter of the Ag. Comy Genl it appears that, of those eleven months, five, though called leave, were really spent in active employment and were repaid with full salary.

4. In May 1860, Teagary Chetty obtained 3 months privilege leave and left Barmah where he was then stationed. Instead of returning when his leave expired, he, to quote the letter referred to above

21
"He was granted an extension of leave for 5 months with permission however to attend and do duty in the Office at Heddes then engaged in the adjustment of certain arrears of accounts of Barmah." And "for the period he was thus employed viz from 28th Aug 1860 to 27th Jan 1861 pay was drawn for him from the Office at Shazetango at 50 Rs a month."

5. It is suggested that such leave is leave only in name and should not be counted against the applicant.
