To

J. Lushington Esquire
Accountant General
Port St George.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that in their order of the 9th August 1870 No 36 Pension Department the Government sanctioned a gratuity of Rs. 140 to S. Venkata Chelland late a Revenue Inspector in the Ellore Taluk. He died about the time the sanction was received and the amount is still unpaid.

2. The deceased left only his widow Ramayi, aged 11 years and an elder brother Subbaroyan who appears to have been living separate from the deceased long since. The former now claims the amount. It is not clear whether the brother is divided from the deceased but however this may be considering that the money now applied for is a reward for her husband's services to Government. I beg to recommend that the necessary authority be obtained for the payment of the amount to the guardian of the
