This is to certify that P. Chocalingum Moolli has been employed in this Office as an Accountant since the year 1840 and that he has applied himself to his duties, in the Financial Department where he now is, and before that, to his duties in the Book keepers Department, to which he was first attached on his admission, with great diligence and attention. His habits are good, and his character and conduct unexceptionable, and I have much pleasure in granting him this Certificate which he has applied for to be submitted with his application to the Acting Collector of Quinter to fill the situation of Head Accountant, the duties of which I consider him fully competent to discharge from his general knowledge of public business and from his qualifications as an Accountant.		17 July 1846	Promotion
