Chingleput District, Collector's Office,
on account Shapermatan
Saidapet, 28 February 1873

FROM

A W Barlow Esq: AG COLLECTOR OF THE CHINGLEPUT DISTRICT.

TO

J Lushington Esq: Acctl Genl. Madras.

SIR,

I have the honor to forward, for the sanction of Government, a register of applications for an Invalid Pension to Ayiyulu Naik, late a Peon of the Conjeeveram Taluk.

2 It will be observed from the register, that the total period of the applicant's service is ⁴⁰ 40-5-4. As however only the service commencing from 25th October 1838 could be verified from records, an affidavit has been taken from the applicant for the service prior to that period, which is supported by the statement of a contemporary employe - translations of which are enclosed.

3 The cause of the Peon's dismissal in 1854 is not known, as no records are for the coming.

I have the honor to be,
Yours most ^{truly} obedient servant.

Translation of Sybil given by Sybil Kaiet, peon of Coymirand Talag, who has applied for pension, before the Sub Collector of Chingkeput District
dated Pudupattam, 10th Jan'y 1873.

My service commenced as peon of Utravallus Talag on Rs 3-8-in 1832. Subsequently in 1834, I was employed as peon of the office of the Special Collector at Chingkeput on Rs 5-4- until 1838, when that office
having been abolished I was transferred to the post of peon of Caraiyooly
Talag on a reduced pay of Rs 3-8-
From this period / 25th October 1838 /
up to 7th June 1872 I was employed as peon of the said Caraiyooly and other Talags. I do not recollect the exact date of the commencement of my service in 1832 or of my transfer in 1834. My service from 1832 to 1838
can be borne out by your Office

Moochi

Inochi Moonisamy Naick, as he had then been employed as Dafter
bandi in the office of the Head
Assistant Collector.

Translation of Sygul given by the Officer Inochi Moonisamy Naick before the As Sub Collector of the Ching Deputy District dated 10th January 1873.

I entered the Government service as Dafterbandi on Rs 5-4-0 in the office of the special collector of the Zillah of Ching Deputy on the 24th April 1833. Sygul Naick, son of Coyineraud Talug, who has now applied for pension, had been employed as peon of Utramallur Talug from before that period; I knew it well.

Subsequently the said Sygul Naick was employed as peon of the Office of the Special Collector on Rs 5-4-0, but the exact commencement of this service I am not aware of.

To The Acting Collector of Chengamput.

Vide app. office application for pension
on behalf of H. Srinivasa Naicker.

- The undersigned has the honor to request explanation on the following points.
1. Why was the applicant named entered in the list of persons as they stood on 1st April 1872
and subsequent years up to 1872. as Chengamput Srinivasa Naicker instead of Srinivasa Naicker
as shown in the Register of application?
 2. Why was the period of service prior to 11th Sept^r 1872 reckoned as qualifying for pension when the same is vitiated by dismissal?
 3. From what source was the applicant's dismissal traced out, when no records are forthcoming? please state why nothing
from dismissal was mentioned in the applicant's affidavit?
 4. Why does the applicant depose that he was a peon in the Special Asst. Commr.
office from 1834 to Oct^r 38. While that Estab^t
does not appear to have existed from 1836.
(Vide Annual returns of 1 May 36 to 1838).
 5. Was the Special Asst. Commr. Estab^t permanent or temporary? In any case please state when it was abolished.

From

O. B. Irvine Esqre,

As Collector of the Chinglaput District.

To.

J. Lushington Esqre,

Accountant General Madras.

Sir,

Vide your office Memo dated 6th March 1873 herewith returned regarding Aiyalu Naik's Case.

1. I have the honor to forward, in lieu of the application for pension, one for gratuity as it now appears that the records do not support the service of the Applicant prior to October 1838. This renders replies to queries Nos 4 and 5 unnecessary.

2. As to 1st query the Applicant was called Chinglaput Aiyalu Naik in order to distinguish him from 30 others of the same name in the Loujeveram Talug where he was employed after the reduction of Establishment by Mr. Pelly in 1860 and from the accident of his having before that time, been employed in the Chinglaput Talug. Kina being the house name of the Applicant it was entered in the register.

3. As to queries 2 & 3 the applicant was stated to have been dismissed because it was so entered in the service list furnished by the Treasury Deputy Collector. As however there are no records in support of the alleged dismissal and the applicant was restored soon after it was thought that the break might have been caused by suspension as was stated by 2 contemporary employes and so the previous service was reckoned as qualifying and nothing was mentioned about the dismissal in the affidavit.

The applicant however now says that he was dismissed by the Head Assistant Magistrate but the collector on appeal merely suspended and reinstated him after the term of suspension.

4. The Sub Collector states that the delay referred to was unavoidable as the information regarding the applicant's service had to be obtained from the various offices in which he was employed.

5. No service book was kept in this case and I have consequently none to send.
