Memo

With reference to reply of Deputy Inspector General Central Range to Memo No 5014/1747 of 7th Ultimo regarding the joint petition of 1st Class Constable No 140 Edroo Saib and 2nd Class Constable No 541 Ryath Saib Kurnool District.

2- These men appear to have been sent to the Medical Officer as unfit for further service. The Medical Officer pronounced them "Fit" on this, they were discharged as inefficient by the Deputy Inspr General. This information is given by the Superintendent with reference to one Constable only, but it would appear to apply to both. Thus these men were dismissed without the gratuity to which their length of service entitled them. The proceeding is quite inadmissable and is is strictly forbidden for the future, when men are produced for Medical Examination, the decision of the Medical Officer will in all cases be accepted -

3 - Captain Stuart states that he believed Petitioners (or one of them at least) bore a bad character. No actual information however can now be furnished on this point. If the Petitioner deserved dismissal for misconduct or general bad character why put them before the Medical Officer at all. The course adopted is altogether objectionable -

4 - The Petitioners will be reinstated with benefit of former service
