Extract from letter from the Superintendent of Police Nellore dated 7th March 1873 No. 98

They have been waiting in Nellore since November last, as it was supposed that the Committee would assemble, as usual, about the end of last year or the beginning of this. Up to this time however no intimation of the proposed assembly of a Committee has been given. I understand from the zillah surgeon's that in consequence of the death of the late Deputy Inspector General of Hospitals and of his successor being in Burmah, considerable time is likely to elapse before the latter has taken charge of his office; and that moreover the hot season being so near it is likely to be several months more before he will come to Nellore and a Committee can be formed.

Now these 17 men are all more or less infirm and unfit for work they spend a great deal of time in Hospital, and one of them is actually a confirmed lunatic. It is very bad economy therefore to go on paying them and keeping them in the Force for an indefinite time.
