Replies-

The Sandalwood Establishment was entered in the Annual "Account particulars of extra charges in the Sandalwood department" for the period noted. In Extract Minutes Consultation dated 25th January 1847 (copy enclosed), the Sandalwood Candachar Establish-ment was ordered to be included under the head of Extra Land Revenue Establishment. Probably the Establish-ment was a temporary one, but as the Ghaut Candachar &c. are treated as permanent Establish-ments, and services on those Establishments are reckoned for Pension, Vide this office memo No. 29 of 18th November 1872, the services of

of the applicant as Sandal-wood Candachar were also included in the period reckoned as service.

It does not appear that any one in the Sandalwood Candachar Establishment has ^{at any time} obtained Pension or Gratuity.
