Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 23rd June 1873.

No. 96. Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel W. J. WILSON, Inspector-General of Jails, to the Hon. W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Ootacamund, 18th June 1873, No. 100:—

With reference to Section 47 of the Civil Pension Code and Note thereon No. 1 I have the honour to request you will be good enough to inform me whether a Warder discharged on the abolition of his situation but who is offered a similar situation elsewhere forfeits his claim to gratuity if he declines to accept it.

2. I make this reference owing to a refusal by two Warders recently thrown out of employ by the abolition of the Jail at Paumben to accept of employment at the Central Jail at Trichinopoly.

No. 97. ORDER THEREON, 23rd June 1873, No. 981.

The Governor in Council considers that in such cases the Inspector-General must decide as to the reasonableness of the objection, as it is quite possible that the proposed transfer might render the proffered employment not "suitable." The rule does not appear to lay down an absolute prohibition to the grant of gratuities in such cases, but in the present instance the objection certainly would seem to be unreasonable and the gratuities must be withheld.

(True Extract.)

Signed W. Hudleston
Chief Secretary.
