look dated 12th March 1859 No 243.

Devasagayam Pillay the Cutwall of Sonda in the Heilgherry Talook was on many former occasions fined and reprimanded for dilatoriness in the discharge of his duties.
It appears from Colonel Woodfall's letter dated 11th Instant that Doctor Leslie's Servant who had broken open the arrack box, drunk the arrack contained in bottles & committed irregularities, and who was placed under the custody of the above Cutwall, has escaped in consequence of the great neglect on the part of the Cutwall and peon Sheikh Ibrahim. The above Cutwall and peon are therefore this day dismissed. By enquiries on the

Enclosure No 4

Extract from Diary of Collector & Magistrate dated 6th June 1868.

1. Read letter from Mr C. S. Galton acting as Asst. Magistrate of Coimbatore dated 5th June 1868 No 26 reporting the result of his enquiry into the conduct of the Sub Magistrate and Dy. Sahib.
= charge of Metaphorism

Read depositions taken by that officer and statement made by the Sub Magistrate.

2. It appears that on application, the Sub Magistrate gave a certain party permission to build, that afterwards the Sub Magistrate had a charge of trespass preferred against the same individual for encroachment and took the very unusual and unjustified step of issuing a warrant instead of a summons for appearance against that person of apparent respectability who to all appearance, had no intention of absconding.

3. It further appears that, come complainant's veranda had been pulled down during his absence, and this is stated to have been done by the Sub Magistrate's order, and that the Sub Magistrate is interposed obstacles to the complainant's obtaining a stamp paper on which to prefer his complaint about the removal of his veranda.

4. On the enquiry of the Sub Magistrate into the alleged encroachment it was found that none had been committed and the charge was dismissed. It would have been more regular, if the Sub Magistrate who seems to have instituted the proceeding, had himself, when he visited the spot in his immediate neighbourhood, satisfied himself that there were grounds for action, before issuing a summons, far more a warrant.

5. Further, when it seemed that a stamp paper had been applied for to write a complaint on and endorsed for issue to the complainant, the Sub Magistrate refused to give it, and as it had been paid for, and was not available for other use, he got another party of the same name to apply for it, so as to conceal the original transaction and make the accounts square. There is no other reasonable solution of the entry of the ^{sale of the} stamp paper on one date, and its eventual disposal on another subsequent date, than that this was done at the instance of the Sub Magistrate.

6. The Sub Magistrate further was indebted to a person within his jurisdiction. the complainant. he admits the fact, and alleges his ignorance of its impropriety.

7. Ignorance of duty and procedure.

apparent malice in the arbitrary execution of official acts. untruthfulness, and the contraction of debt within his jurisdiction, necessitate the removal of the Sub Magistrate from an office, which he has proved himself unfitted to hold.

8 That he should be immediately provided with a pension to which his length of service may entitle him, does not commend itself to the Collector and Magistrate.

Pensions are granted for good and efficient service.

9 He will be reemployed in a subordinate capacity, on an opportunity offering and may then endeavor to obtain a good character. Without such intermediate qualification, the Collector and Magistrate would feel doubtful of recommending to Government the grant of a pension to Devasagayam Pillay.
