22ND JULY 1873, No. 374, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—again G.O., dated 23rd June 1873, No. 323, Pension.

READ—also the following paper :—

From the Acting Inspector-General of Police, to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Madras, 1st July 1873, No. 2038.

I have the honor, with reference to paragraph 3 of G.O., No. 323, of the 23rd June 1873, to forward, herewith, letter, No. 10, dated 21st April 1873, from the Zillah Surgeon, Salem, to the address of the Superintendent of Police, giving as the opinion of the medical committee that the incapacity for further duty of late constable, No. 385, Abdool Cawder, was not attributable to his own intemperance or irregular habits, but to the unsound state of his mind.

ENCLOSURE.

From the Zillah Surgeon, Salem, to the Superintendent of Police, Salem, dated Salem, 21st April 1873, No. 10.

I have the honor to acknowledge your letter, No. 168, of the 19th instant, and to point out that the column "character as to habits" was filled in, in your office and not in mine, and the same procedure would therefore seem to be pointed out as regards constables Nos. 225 and 385.

2. As regards the questions of permanence and self-induction, I have to remark that the diseases or disqualifications are all of a permanent character or the men would have been remanded for treatment instead of being pensioned, while as to being self-induced No. 225 is already explained to be syphilitic, No. 373 (entered as 372) is explicit on the point, and No. 385 being a mental affection the constable is not to be held blameable for its occurrence.

ORDER—dated 22nd July 1873, No. 374, Pension.

The Zillah Surgeon having reported that the incapacity for further duty of late constable, No. 385, Abdool Cawder, was not attributable to his own intemperance or irregular habits, but to the unsound state of his mind, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Abdool Cawder an invalid gratuity of Rs. (77) seventy-seven, to which he is entitled for his qualifying police service of 11 years 2 months and 2 days.
