Sir

I have the honour to forward an application for Invalid gratuity on behalf of Conjeevaram Varadappa Aiker, a peon on the establishment of the Tahsildar of Tripatore.

his incapacity for further service, is also enclosed. Service Registers for the whole of this Department being still under preparation, none has been submitted for the applicant.

3. The delay in submitting this application arose from its having been necessary to twice return it to the Head Ass^t Collector for correction and

Reply to Accountant General's Memo: dated 20th May 1873.

1. The correct name of the applicant is Conjeeraram Varadappa Naicker (not Conjeeraram as stated in the memo: under reply) and was so shown as the Rules require that the full name of the applicant should be given. The reason why it was given in the Annual Returns as "Varoodan" and "Conjeeraram Varathan" was that it is not customary in the case of persons of low degree to show the caste name and that amongst natives such persons' names are abbreviated. Thus Varadappa Naicker becomes Varadappa and this again as anyone acquainted with Tamil knows, is abbreviated into Varadappan and finally becomes Varudan. The difference in spelling between "Varudan" and "Varathan" is simply the result of the interchange of "d" & soft "t" which is extremely common. "Rasipur Varadan" as given in the list of peons for 1866, is reported to be an error. "Conjeeraram" should have been entered instead of "Rasipur".

2. The application under reply was sent up by the Dy Head Assistant Collector unaccompanied by a medical certificate, he being under the impression that it was not required in the case of peons. It was returned to him in order that the error might be rectified. Hence the irregularity remarked upon.
